PREMIER PERFORMANCE

PRAIRIE PROFILES was commissioned by the CBC and was composed in October, 1980, as a project in honour of Alberta's 75th birthday.

The texts are by the Calgary poet, DAVID CARTER and are used with his permission.

The composer found the book of poems in a bookstore in Banff and was immediately attracted to the four listed.

They suggested the sound of the instruments which have been chosen.

The poems project vivid images, moods, as well as colours and sounds, which in the mind of the composer, reflect the character and vastness of the prairies.

This program is being recorded by CBC for future broadcast on ARTS NATIONAL.

The use of cameras and tape recorders is not permitted at this performance.
